

First Name *

Last Name *

Location: *

Date *

1. There are separate Notices of privacy Practices for Behavioral Health, and staff may share information for Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Coordination in Behavioral Health and Treatment, Payment and Healthcare Operations for the GCHC: *

- True
- False

2. Three examples of bad practices and things to avoid are, 1. Overlapping Authorizations or more than one Authorization in place; 2. Copy/Pasting in documents, especially IPOS and progress notes; and 3. Inappropriate/Overuse of IND-14 *

- True
- False

3. Identifying that your provider has received an overpayment but failing to repay that overpayment amount within 60 days of quantifying the amount violates the Whistleblower Protection Act: *

- True
- False

4. For services that are time-specific according to the procedure code billed, providers must indicate in the medical record the actual begin time and end time of the particular service: *

- True
- False

5. 42 CFR Part 2- Confidentiality of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Patient Records allows staff to acknowledge an individual as a recipient of services: *

- True
- False

6. After reporting a compliance issue to the compliance office, you must document the report in the patient record: *

- True
- False

7. Behavioral health providers can never share client records without permission: *

- True
- False

8. All of the following concerns must be reported: Inappropriate interactions between consumers and staff; billing for services not provided; a fired employee who is disgruntled with the employer; any irregular, suspicious, inaccurate, or inconsistent activity: *

- True
- False

9. The State investigative unit solicits, receives, and investigates complaints related to fraud, abuse, waste is called the Michigan Office of Inspector General (OIG): *

- True
- False

10. Telehealth can be provided by phone, and service provision can include only text messaging: *

- True
- False

Phone

Submit